Navigating a Magazine & Accessing Back Issues:

- Article titles on the magazine cover, in table of contents, and mentioned anywhere else in the magazine should be linked to that article. Tapping an article title should bring you directly to that article.
- The panel on the right side contains a few buttons to help you view the issue. The large forward and backward arrows (orange circle) will turn the magazine page.
- You can quickly scroll through the pages of the magazine by tapping on the Pages (blue circle) button.
- The table of contents button is combined with the all issues button. Tap on All Issues (purple circle) to view the magazine contents and back issues.
- A menu will appear displaying back issues (red box) and this issues table of contents (green box). Tap a back issue and then the view button above the table of contents to open it or tap on any article in the table of contents to jump to that article.

The image shows the 'Contents & Back Issues' screen of the Clean Eating app. At the top, there's a search bar. Below it, the magazine's logo and name are displayed. On the right side, there's a vertical panel with buttons for 'All Issues' (grayed out), 'Pages' (highlighted in blue), 'Zoom' (with minus and plus icons), 'Print' (with a printer icon), and 'Settings' (with a gear icon). The main content area shows the front cover of the Jan/Feb 2018 issue, which is a '10-YEAR ANNIVERSARY ISSUE'. Below the cover, the issue details are listed: 'Jan/Feb 2018', 'Issue 75', and '100 pages'. To the left, there's a 'Contents Gallery' section showing thumbnail images of previous issues. A red box highlights the 'More Issues' section, which lists issues from Nov/Dec 2017 to Jul/Aug 2017. A green box highlights the 'Cover' and 'Contents' sections of the current issue's table of contents, which include articles like '10 Years of Clean Eating!', 'letters & advisory board', 'LIVE BETTER', 'Happy 10th Birthday to Us!', '3 WAYS WITH BREAKFAST BOWLS', and 'CALM YOUR GUT WITH BROCCOLI'.
