

CELL PHONES

In an effort to maintain an optimum and pleasant environment, the Islip Public Library requests that patrons be considerate of others when visiting the Library. Cell phones and other portable communication devices (herein referred to as cell phones collectively) shall not be used in the Library other than in either vestibule or outside the facility. Cell phones must be turned off or set to vibrate while in the Library. Patrons violating this policy shall be asked to leave the Library or face other penalties.
