

PROMOTIONS

Whenever possible, promotions shall be made from within the ranks of the Library staff. Promotions should be based on past performance, ability, attitude, experience, and reachability on the appropriate Suffolk County Civil Service examination list.

While it may be considered, seniority alone is never the basis for any promotion.

It is the Trustees' desire that the Director will provide in-service training and encourage staff members to undertake career-related training and seek advancement.

March 10, 2022